

Frostbyte's Den Terms of Service, Effective: 23/03/2026

By continuing with payment you agree with the following conditions,

1. I don't accept due dates, Simply... I can't meet deadlines so I won't set them, you will receive your commission in a timely manner.
2. If your commission has physical materials, it may take as long as the post decides! (Most fur retailers are international based and we're at the mercy of shipping. Of which large amounts can be hard to acquire).
3. Alterations to commissions may be made but will incur extra costs, especially if I'm half way through.
4. Use of AI reference sheets will void this commission, if you have paid, no refund will be given (this instead will be donated to the next charity I see).
5. Use of anything I produce with AI generators or AI profile picture generation will have you blacklisted for future commissions (as an artist, I protect my work), Do not alter the provided image in any way via AI.
6. Your fursona may be used to advertise future commissions, if you don't want this, please tell me.
7. I will NOT do any art related to the IP of Nintendo or any other game manufacturer, this is for my protection as well as yours.
8. Listed prices are the base prices, these may increase depending on complexity and your fursona.

Upon commencement of artwork, you'll be sent the individual stickers as they're completed unless I complete them in a batch or outside working hours (Australian Eastern Time).

Upon commencement of physical media, you'll be sent photos at critical design stages, you will need to approve of these before anything can continue.
